MUSIC IS BOTH AN INSPIRATION AND AN ASPIRATION, AND FOR SOME IT'S A WAY TO SEE THE WORLD.

To perform in front of an international audience is a dream come true for many and we're proud to be part of helping that dream be realized. At HAPPY TOURS, we create performance tours for choirs and orchestras in a way that guarantees a meaningful and memorable experience. We search for spectacular venues, including gothic churches, medieval castles, and other world-class spaces. We know how to draw in the crowds, working with local music schools, media, and tourism offices. We even arrange local choirs and orchestras to perform with your groups. Throughout the years, we've organized numerous events and brought thousands of talented musicians from across the world to Europe.

Let us do the same for you!

CHOIRS

We can organise an array of opportunities for your choir, from formal evening performances to afternoon recitals. We coordinate rehearsals and piano hire, as well as stage setup. We work with the local community and involve local music schools and choirs.

ORCHESTRA

For orchestral groups, we handle instrument transportation and storage and music equipment, when necessary. Typically for these groups, the stages need to be bigger and there's a longer time-frame for planning. We use this additional time to ensure every need is met and no detail goes unnoticed.

MUSIC FESTIVALS AND MARCHING BANDS

We assist with applications to various music festivals and marching band parades, including the most iconic ones like the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Dublin, Limerick, and London.

When performers, both students and adults, visit Europe, they most likely go to the birthplace of the music they study. Between rehearsals and performances, there's the opportunity to explore the place where the music was composed. Your performance groups can visit music museums, attend some of the most famous performances in world-class concert halls and opera houses, or attend music festivals. The choice is yours entirely and we look forward to helping create the perfect experience for you.
